This is why some people fail to get their photographs taken.

IN THE OIL FIELDS.

Sistersville, Dec. 23.—J. M. Guffey and other Pittsburghers are getting ready to start two wells on the Pitt farm, located directly west and between the Kyle well and the "Big Moses" gasser.

The Joseph Archer, on Middle Island, came in yesterday, and is reported to be doing between 25 and 40 barrels per day. This well is owned by Capt. J. T. Jones, and its showing means the extension of the Keener pool around Little's Mills.

A report was received in the city last evening to the effect that W. L. Mellon & Co., who have a big lot of territory over in the vicinity of Beallsville and New Jerusalem, on the B. Z. & C. railroad, in Monroe county, O., had struck a big well a short distance from New Jerusalem, that the well was reported doing in the neighborhood of 250 barrels an hour. This well is a rank wildcat and will open up a big lot of territory in that section and will be a good thing for that end of the county. An effort was made this afternoon to verify the story, but nothing could be heard from it.

The Zanesville Gas, Oil and Fuel company's directors have organized by reelecting all the old officers: President, F. C. Dietz; vice president, Gilbert Snyder; secretary, T. C. Conner; treasurer, H. C. Lindsay.

The directors of the company voted to sink another well in their New Concord field and work will begin on it soon.

In the St. Marys field the Fransant Bros. well, on the Ambler farm, came in dry. This farm is one and one-half miles from St. Marys and one mile southwest of the Broad run production. The point of the drill had penetrated to a depth of 625 feet—35 feet lower than the Mallory Bros. & Barnsdall well, on the Brown farm. Not daunted, the Fransant Bros. will proceed at once to investigate the recesses of the second Cow run sand before abandoning hope for grease.

Tunnel.

Calhoun and Post have about completed their rig on the Wm. Perdev farm.

The Atlantic Oil Co. have made a location on the Chas. Perdev place and will put up the rig at once. They have tubed Trenchel No. 6 and will probably know in a short time what kind of well they have. It is thought to be good for from 15 to 25 bbls.

Mrs. Hugh Reid and Miss Lottie Deming, of Constitution, spent a few days here, the guests of Misses Lottie and Nettie Treichel.

S. A. Coffman loaded a car of apples this week and sold same to E. J. Thornly & Bro., wholesale fruit merchants of Marietta.

Mr. Jacob Hill, an aged and highly respected citizen, of Warren township, passed away last week. His death was indirectly due to old age. The deceased has long been a resident of this township, a consistent member of the United Brethren Church and will be missed by all who knew him. The interment will take place in Oak Grove Cemetery.

Another sad event was the death of Mr. William Pinkerton, at Marietta, last Saturday evening. The deceased grew to manhood near Bethel, this township, attained a good education and taught school for a time, then went West and followed railroading for several years, when, his health failing, he came back to Marietta, working here and there as his health would permit, but he finally had to submit to that grim destroyer, consumption. He was a member of Harmar Lodge No. 115, I. O. O. F., and was buried under the beautiful funeral rites of that Order. Several from this place attended the funeral which was held at Bethel Cemetery. To the wife and three little children, we would all unite in tendering our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of sad bereavement.

A BOLD TRICK.

A Tramp Tries Robbery on Putnam Street Early Friday Evening.

About eight o'clock Friday evening Mr. A. D. Alderman, City Editor of the Register, underwent the unique but unpleasant experience of an attempted "hold-up" and it is probable that nothing but the prompt display of a disposition to defend himself saved him from being knocked down and robbed. While on his way home and when just in front of the jail on Putnam street, Mr. Alderman's path was intersected by a strange man with the appearance of a tramp, who, crossing Putnam street hurriedly, faced Mr. Alderman and scowling into the latter's face drew back his arm for a blow. Instantly dropping the parcels with which he was burdened, Mr. Alderman squared himself to resist the expected onslaught and the would-be robber took to his heels.

Putnam street was almost deserted at the time, but a cab-driver passing witnessed the occurrence and obtained a good view of the assailant. He was about Mr. Alderman's size and could be easily identified if caught.

Shortly after the attempted hold-up (or knock-down, rather) the stranger was seen coming out of the yard at Dr. Dickinson's residence, going up Fourth street. The police were notified immediately and started a systematic search for him.
